US Legal Forms for businesses of all sizes and industries

Not every business can afford its own in-house legal counsel. Nor does every business need legal counsel on a full-time basis. However, in many situations, businesses of all sizes and sectors may need to find and/or create legal templates or legal business forms.

US Legal Forms is the largest online library of such forms and a one-stop-shop for state-specific template documents that companies and business personnel can access at any time.

Create your own business forms in three easy steps:

1. Select your state, type in the name of a form, or keywords to simplify the search, and select a template from the list of suggested options.

2. Input the data you need using pdfFiller, an online PDF editor. You can also add sticky notes with your comments, highlight essential details, and so on.

3. If the form needs to be signed, switch to signNow to add your own signature or send the forms to your business partners for eSigning.

What do businesses have to say about US Legal Forms?

I just wish I found the site earlier! Spent several late nights googling various forms and trying to figure out where to even start. US Legal has been my savior for months now.

Scott A. | Owner of a staffing agency

They know what they are doing. I solved the issue of property abandonment in the state of Louisiana. After using US Legal Forms, I realized that this site is professional and organized. The platform is great if you do not want to hire a lawyer and it helps with filling out official documents by yourself.
